

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCIAL CERTIFICATE

This form is not an application for financial assistance. The Immigration and Naturalization Service requires an international student to show funds are available for the first year of study, and that adequate funding will also be available for subsequent years. Your financial information will be used to ensure compliance with U.S. immigration policy and is necessary to create your immigration document (I-20).

An official bank or financial statement (in English) showing the amount of funds available must accompany this form.
